A Celebration of Culture and Diversity

EVERYBODY WELCOME

Monday, March 23, 2009

Speaker: Haley Bowling, Kentucky Chautauqua Presentation

Topic: Anna Mac Clarke, Military Pioneer, 1919-1944

Anna Mac Clarke didn't put up with second-class treatment from anybody, including the U.S. Army. At Douglas Army Airfield in Arizona, Lt. Clarke made history when she became the first black WAC officer to command a white unit. She made national news after her protest against segregated seating in the base theater convinced the commanding officer to ban segregation on the base.

See Ms. Bowling's portrayal of this remarkable Kentucky native as we celebrate Women's History Month.

Location: Main Campus, Building F Conference Room

Time: 12:30 am - 1:30 pm
